Kurt Geiger

Nicky Eisen, Merchandising Executive

Why should you be wearing a grey suit this season?

The grey suit is the classic day suit. Smart but not formal; casual with suede shoes or loafers; an open collar or elegant for work; with leather lace-ups in either tan or black – think Fred Astaire and Cary Grant.

What should you look for when buying a suit?

Fit is essential. Kurt Geiger is a slim/regular fit, making it comfortable and fashionable, while not skinny, boxy or 'old'. It has Lycra for comfort, which also makes it easy for travel. Crease recovery is very good. It is made from Super 140s wool, which is very fine but also durable. It has superb finish, both internally and externally.

GQ PROMOTION

LEVI'S® 798 COMFORT FIT
This great new fit sits with all the comfort of the 507 in the waist, but offers more room in the legs from the thigh creating a more relaxed look.

LEVI'S® 780 STRAIGHT LEG
For a more progressive style with all the comfort of the 507, look no further than the new 780 straight leg.

The Levi's® 7 Series takes the original to a higher level

SEVEN UP

The 501® has been around the block once or twice, picking up fans as it goes. Anyone who is anyone has owned a pair, not only for the comfortable fit and functionality, but because it's an icon. Over the decades, variations on the theme gave birth to new classics like the 507 and the 516. Now, there is the Levi's® 7 Series. It offers what you've come to expect from a pair of Levi's® jeans, but with superior styling and modernity it takes your favourite jeans to another level. Featuring three fits with a wide range of finishes, you'll find a pair for every occasion.

The Levi's® 7 Series is available in all Levi's® Stores, & select Edgars, Markham™ and SportsScene stores from October, 2007.

LEVI'S® 797 BOOTCUT
If it's a bootcut you're after, this updated style is for you. Not as narrow as a shoe cut, but closer to a flair, the 797 is a true bootcut.
