Late BLOOMER

Florals are typically synonymous with spring, but these are not your typical sunny-sky blooms. This crop of botanical prints give the look a moody, wintry twist.

Dark romance
Create a mysterious, romantic look by combining muted and dark colours with dramatic floral detail. The long, flowy skirt also adds drama.

Premium pullover with floral embroidery (R1 549) Barethreads. Circle-cut skirt (R1 199) H&M Studio.

Gather ye rosebuds

Why go for a run-of-the-mill floral knit when you can opt for something a lot more fun, like this bouquet print? Keep the rest of the look soft and neutral to let this sweater take centre stage.

Bouquet jumper (R1 250) Arlio. Eileen. Wide-legged cotton pants (R1 050) Baraboo. Printed neckerchief (R769) Zara. Grace 91st yellow-gold neck chain with Eden coin medallion and Julietta and Edie heart charms (from R6 500) Russel & Rose.

Puff piece

A short-sleeved knit sounds like a contradiction in terms, but it works so well on those in-between days. This floral textured one goes with everything – and really lets this beautiful printed skirt shine.

Collared knit top with buttons (R799) H&M. Keskinen 1971 linen skirt (R 300) Hennes & Mauritz. Grace 91st yellow-gold neck chain with Eden coin medallion and Julietta and Edie heart charms (R2 899) UGG, Trench.

Cosy, quirky, cool

Combine contrasting textures for a look that feels luxe and layered. A thurstone-embellished turtleneck is the perfect tactile element to this outfit.

Knit sweater with thurstone (R1 299) and printed turtleneck (R1 299) H&M. Grace 91st yellow-gold neck chain (R1 200) Peasey. Grace 91st boots (R1 099) H&M.
